

Faculty Biography

Christy M. Dunst, MD, FACS

The Oregon Clinic
Division of Gastrointestinal and
Minimally Invasive Surgery
Portland, Oregon

Medical school:
University of Colorado

Residency:
Hennepin County Medical Center

Dr. Dunst graduated from the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center. She later completed her internship and residency at Hennepin County Medical Center. Dr. Dunst completed a fellowship at Hennepin County Medical Center and later completed another fellowship in Thoracic Foregut and Esophageal Surgery at the University of Southern California.

She is a member of several organizations, including the Society of American Gastrointestinal Endoscopic Surgeons, the American College of Surgeons, and the Association of Women Surgeons. She focuses on Gastroesophageal Reflux Disease (GERD), Barrett's Esophagus, Esophageal Cancer, and other minimally invasive surgical needs at The Oregon Clinic- Gastrointestinal and Minimally Invasive Surgery (GMIS).